SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF INYO

In re the Matter of the L.L. Nunn Trust for the benefit of Deep Springs College under the Deed of Trust dated November 5, 1923.	Case No. SICVPB1253232 JOINT STATEMENT FOLLOWING 12-7-12 CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

In the Case Management Conference held on December 7, 2012 the parties discussed the expected timing of the Court's order following the hearing of November 19, 2012. In addition, Judge Stout requested that the parties consider whether any Alternative Dispute Resolution process would be useful in assisting the parties to come to a resolution of any of the items pending before the Court.

THE PARTIES' CONSIDERATION OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Following the Court's suggestion, counsel for the Petitioner and the Respondents have conferred and each has conferred with his respective clients. On the matters currently before the Court, that is, Petitioner's petition for interpretation of the 1923 L. L. Nunn Trust; Respondents' motion to join the Corporation; and, Respondents' motion for a preliminary injunction to prevent a transition to coeducation at Deep Springs College unless and until the Court rules in favor of the Petitioner's request for interpretation or modification, the parties remain at an impasse.

Therefore, the parties respectfully request that the Court make a determination on the pending issues.

PETITIONER'S UPDATE ON ADMISSION SCHEDULE

As we discussed in the Status Conference, the College would like to invite both male and female applicants to the second round of applications. The College has officially delayed second round invitations but they must be sent out the second week in January at the latest because of the acceptance deadlines at other colleges. Therefore, we would greatly appreciate direction from the Court by the second week in January.
